Library Notes

The Vulcan and District Public Library now has on its shelves "Lone Hunters' First Buffalo Hunt." This is an authentic tale of Indian lore and adventure, that will appeal to boys eight to 10 years of age. For the five to six year group, "No Roses for Harry," will prove highly interesting. Poor dog Harry! Grandma sends him a coat, with roses on it and he just can't lose it.

Fine Example Of Carving Hobby

A fine example of the difficult art of carving objects and re-assembling them in bottles is shown in this picture of a hand-carved wagon fitting snugly inside a gallon jug, the work of Dan McNiven, Sr., pioneer Vulcan district resident.

The wagon, carved from Ontario basswood, is complete with box, reach, doubletrees, fork, wheels and rubber tires and seat, all painstakingly assembled inside the glass jug.

Mr. McNiven has completed several other carvings, assembled inside quart bottles, but this is the largest and most difficult and is a fine example of this very interesting hobby.

Mrs. Marion Irwin Laid To Rest

A well known resident of the Brant and Vulcan districts, Mrs. Marion M. Irwin died in hospital Jan. 1, following a severe stroke suffered two days earlier. She was 76 years of age.

Born in Scotland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Marshall, she came to Canada with her parents in 1887, living at the west coast. She married Robert Irwin at Euborne, Sea Island, in 1900. The couple farmed there until 1904 when they moved to Alberta and settled in the Brant district, where they continued to farm.

Mrs. Irwin was predeceased by her husband in 1944 and by a son, John, in 1936. She retired from the farm in 1954 and lived at the west coast until a year ago, when she returned to live in Vulcan.

She is survived by four sons, Robert S. of Brant, Joseph W. of Calgary, Richard M. and David, both of the Brant district; two daughters, Mrs. Dale Campbell of Vulcan and Mrs. David Melnick of Kilmat, B.C.; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. C. S. Davies and Mrs. Agnes McLaughlin, both of Fort Coquillam, B.C.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Donald S. Sharpe at the Vulcan United Church on Tuesday, Jan. 6. R. C. Kerruish was soloist and pall-bearers were Dale Mc-Masters, Robert Gothard, Phillip Lucas, James White, Sam White and Elmer Larson.

The large attendance at the service and the numerous bouquets and wreaths of flowers attested to the high regard held for Mrs. Irwin by her many friends and neighbors.

Burial was made in the family plot at the Vulcan cemetery.

NATIONAL WEALTH

The four great sources of Canadian wealth are forests, farms, minerals, and water power. The pulp and paper industry uses the water power to convert the forest crop into dollars of national income chiefly obtained from abroad through exports and chiefly paid out in wages.

The New Year, 1959, came in with a roaring north wind, blowing snow, and dropping temperatures. A strong southwest chinook blew over the district on Wednesday melting most of the snow that remained and turning most everywhere a mass of puddles. Around 9:30 p.m. the wind switched making the weather very miserable for anyone who planned on attending any of the New Years eve frolics. Below zero temperatures have prevailed since, with high winds for a couple of days. A good old fashioned blizzard could have been experienced if we would have had more snow, however we hope the weatherman has some more good weather in store for the future.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by acting secretary, Don McCord. The treasurer's report was given by Bill Black.

During the business meeting, a suggestion was made to purchase a plaque in remembrance of the late Albert Stumpf, long-time van driver and an old-timer of the Milo district.

It was reported that the Lions are to help with the Christmas treats at the School Christmas Party, as they have in the past. It will be further discussed at the February meeting.

Christmas Lights

Ever since the first advent of the Star of Bethlehem, lights have been symbolic of Christmas. And in the little village of Milo, many many miles and two thousand years removed from the scene of the nativity, the Christmas lights are gleaming.

For the last two years, among their many projects, the Lions Club have been instrumental in stringing the decorative Christmas lights on the streets. This year everyone seems to have caught the spirit and on nearly every home the lights glitter and twinkle.

They are reflected in the windows, in the parked cars and perhaps in the hearts of men. The farmer and the traveller comment on their warm and welcome appearance on the highways and the by-ways.

The words are closed up and SEALED till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

—Daniel 12:9 & 10

And he said unto me, SEAL NOT the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the TIME IS AT HAND. He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

Revelation 22:10-12

Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

Matthew 24:44

FURNITURE IS MY LINE

By Bruce Morgan
A Weekly Information Column

Once upon a time... there was a young married couple, and one day when in town, they found themselves in front of a store window full of the most beautiful chesterfield suites.

"Oh," sighed the young wife, "wouldn't it be wonderful if we could have furniture as lovely as this?" No sooner had she spoken, than as if by magic out of a clear sky, there appeared a man. "I am your fairy godfather," he spoke, "and I am going to fulfill your wish. Go inside the store and I will see to it that you get the finest chesterfield that can be bought; you won't be able to find a better, lovelier, stronger piece of furniture anywhere in town. As far as cost is concerned, look in the newspaper and whatever is the lowest price offered in chesterfields, that is what you shall pay."

Delighted, the couple thanked their fairy godfather and they became the proud owners of this loveliest of all chesterfields. They used it till they were old and grey, and after them their children, and their children's children; and they all lived happily ever after, and so did the furniture.

Do you believe in fairy tales? We do not think you do. Sensible people know that they can only expect to get as much value as they are prepared to pay for. The important thing is to make sure that you get the best for what you are willing to spend.

We build less expensive as well as more luxurious furniture, but in both instances we give full value.

Remember we watch our interests by watching yours.

QUEENSTOWN

The little hamlet church was filled on the evening of Dec. 23, when the Queenstown Explorer Group, with the assistance of Mrs. Elder at the piano, very capably conducted a Candlelight Service. Lorraine Eklund was unfortunate to come down with the chicken pox leaving only six girls to conduct the service. Following the service the Sunday School pupils were awarded gifts on the basis of their attendance in Sunday School since the fall classes began. Of course, the exciting portion of the evening was the arrival of Santa Claus himself with all the children receiving candy bags.

Jack Long and Dawna Mae McCord were both discharged from the Vulcan hospital the day before Christmas.

During the Christmas holiday David Nelson underwent a tonsillectomy in the Vulcan Hospital. George Nelson and Norma Brown were also patients in the hospital since Christmas but we are pleased to report that they are both back home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McLaughlan spent Christmas at Cluny at the home of the Herman Spields' where their other two daughters' families joined them, Mr. and Mrs. K. Knight and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hulverson. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Knight visited with the Jim McLaughlans during the holidays with the four grandchildren staying with them while Mr. and Mrs. Knight motored on to Lethbridge to visit Mr. Knight's parents. The three granddaughters returned to Calgary with their parents but Randy spent the remainder of the holidays with his grandparents.

Some of the people of the district recognized the little Hulverson boy, the son of the former Verna McLaughlan, on television during the holiday season when the Christmas tree was being decorated at the Crippled Children's Hospital. He was later discharged and was able to attend the family gathering at Cluny.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Edwards spent Christmas at Parkland with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. K. Dawson. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and family were over for New Years.

Mrs. Lily Long had her family home for New Years. On Christmas Day she accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marks and son to Husar to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Armstrong's.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sevens and family of Calgary spent New Years with the Don McCords and also took in the New Year's dance with them.

Mrs. Doris Gooch and two boys spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Brown. They all spent Christmas at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carruthers. Mrs. Brown entertained their family for New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bushell and Eugene spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Ron Fetkenher and son of Lethbridge. Ron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fetkenher of Avonlea, Sask., were also present. The following Sunday they visited with the Jack Bushells.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Lahd and Jo Anne spent New Years in Calgary.

The hotel proprietors of Milo and Queenstown deserve praise in bringing the spirit of Christmas to all homes in Milo and Queenstown. Bags were made up for all the children and with the assistance of Mr. Beyers and C. L. Beckner, Santa Claus was taken to every home in Milo where children were present and given candy bags. At Queenstown Don McCord assisted Mr. Beyers in taking Santa Claus around.

Gene Wong spent the holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wong.

Two of Tom Daw's brothers spent Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Daw.

Stanley Brown attended the funeral of his brother-in-law at Three Hills on Jan. 2. Sympathy is extended to the Brown family.

Choral Workshop

Miss Bridget Headley, B.A., L.R.A.M., will conduct a ten-week choral workshop in Arrowwood beginning in January. She received her musical education in England at Oxford and Dartington Hall, Devon. She has directed mixed choruses, church choirs and school choirs in addition to being full-time director of music in charge of all singing, orchestra and recorder classes.

Miss Headley has conducted many very successful choral workshops in the Province of Alberta during the past three years. Her love of music and her interest in people qualify her excellently for positions of this kind. This fall she has been directing workshops in Nanton, Claresholm and Okotoks.

The first class will be on Monday, Jan. 12, at 8:00 p.m. at the Church of the Brethren.

A gaily decorated wagon with a Bank of Nova Scotia holding many lovely gifts was pulled in by Rhonda and Raymond Brown. The bride-elect was seated at a decorated table and Miss Margaret Ingraham and Miss Alice Jessop assisted her in opening the gifts. Mrs. Louise Campbell and Mrs. Dick Newman were in charge of the guest book.

The crowd then went to the dining room which was decorated in Christmas colors, and enjoyed a lovely lunch.

Self-made men should be more careful in selecting the materials they use.

The good judgment of some people will never wear out. They don't use it often enough.
